

LEMON MYRTLE TREE

(Backhousia citriodora)

FUN FACTS

-  The leaves would be soaked in water and then put over a fire, the vapour from the leaves would then be inhaled.
-  Also used to flavour food by wrapping leaves around fish and wrapping it into paperbark.
-  Breathing in the crushed leaves relieved headaches.